The bible warns us not to blaspheme the Holy Spirit of God by lying or slandering against him. In the book of Acts, when Ananias and Sapphira sold their property and only gave a portion of the value to Peter, yet they claimed it was the full value. So, Peter said to them that they had lied to the Holy Spirit. Then Ananias fell down and died, and later Sapphira came and told the same lie and she too died instantaneously.

Acts 5:3-10 (New International Version)

3 Then Peter said, "Ananias, how is it that Satan has so filled your heart that you have lied to the Holy Spirit and have kept for yourself some of the money you received for the land? 4 Didn't it belong to you before it was sold? And after it was sold, wasn't the money at your disposal? What made you think of doing such a thing? You have not lied just to human beings but to God."

5 When Ananias heard this, he fell down and died. And great fear seized all who heard what had happened. 6 Then some young men came forward, wrapped up his body, and carried him out and buried him.

7 About three hours later his wife came in, not knowing what had happened. 8 Peter asked her, "Tell me, is this the price you and Ananias got for the land?"

"Yes," she said, "that is the price."

9 Peter said to her, "How could you conspire to test the Spirit of the Lord? Listen! The feet of the men who buried your husband are at the door, and they will carry you out also."

10 At that moment she fell down at his feet and died. Then the young men came in and, finding her dead, carried her out and buried her beside her husband.

The bible warns us explicitly not to sin against the Holy Spirit. That's because the Holy Spirit is in fact the Holy Spirit of God, himself.

Matthew 12:31 (New International Version)

31 And so I tell you, every kind of sin and slander can be forgiven, but blasphemy against the Spirit will not be forgiven.

This is the Blaspheme against the Holy Spirit that is unforgivable. Similarly, this is now the Charismatic Sin which is now being practiced by the charismatic teachers who uses Word of Faith to perform their healing miracles. They proclaim the Word of Faith out of their teachings which claims that Jesus died so that every Christian now possess the rights of the first-born Son and they can do everything that Jesus can do; without consulting the Will of God. They now have a God given right to operate outside the Will of God. The last time I read my bible Jesus said this about himself, and my bible hasn't change since:

John 5:19-20 (New International Version)

19 Jesus gave them this answer: "Very truly I tell you, the Son can do nothing by himself; he can do only what he sees his Father doing, because whatever the Father does the Son also does. 20 For the Father loves the Son and shows him all he does. Yes, and he will show him even greater works than these, so that you will be amazed.

John 5:30 (New International Version)

30 By myself I can do nothing; I judge only as I hear, and my judgment is just, for I seek not to please myself but him who sent me.

Jesus himself cannot do anything by himself, he has to hear and see what God tells or show him to say and do. That's why all of his miracles came to pass, because it was God's sovereign will fulfilled through what Jesus did. That's why when I pray for someone, I will get a message from Jesus first, before I speak or I get to see what is the person's problem, get them to repent if any; then pray for healing as the Lord wills me. I will not speak my own sincere, compassionate, kind useless words to comfort them as my words are totally powerless to do any good. I don't like giving people false hope. Thus, when a person gets healed or not, I know why, because the Lord shows me why. I will never get a "I don't know why reason".

The proclamation of the Word of God is acceptable as long as it is spoken by the Spirit of God. It is also acceptable for certain people who have been ordained and authorized by God to be his spoke person. But, unauthorised proclamation by untrained Christians or preachers constitutes the sin against the Holy Spirit of God for proclaiming a matter when God has not himself decreed. When you proclaimed that you are speaking on behalf of God and it's not true, you have essentially sin against the Holy Spirit by lying that he had said something which he hasn't. You have thus slandered the Holy Spirit of God; that's because you claimed to be God speaking his Will using Jesus' name. How do you know Jesus has given you this power? You only know this truth, not listening to a preacher who tells you so; you know this when Jesus speaks to you directly.

Proclaiming a matter over someone with "Words of Faith" taken from scriptures that are not the Rhema Word of God constitutes the exact sin of manipulation of scripture. Have you wonder why the Word of Faith spoken over you sometimes works and sometimes don't? Then they say you don't have enough faith, its because those words were spoken outside the will of God. This is their own human carnal biblical words of the flesh not God's words, consequently; it's got no power to accomplish anything. Only the ordained Rhema Word from God's own mouth can have that kind of power. I myself, have been guilty of speaking a "good word" over others to bless them out of the compassion of my own heart. I have done so because I felt pity for these people seeking help, but it's useless. It does nothing for them, other than to comfort them for the night, the next day the problem still remains. It was my own self-righteous dirty rags taking over my flesh. This self-righteousness act is being condemned in the book of Isaiah.

Isaiah 64:6 (New International Version)

6 All of us have become like one who is unclean, and all our righteous acts are like filthy rags;

we all shrivel up like a leaf, and like the wind our sins sweep us away.

Consequently, I purposed only to speak what God says and not to speak anything that I didn't hear and to say exactly what God told me even if its bad news. I don't like to give false hope. I discovered the Jesus Way which is the Narrow Path. Only the word which comes from the mouth of God has power to accomplish whatever purpose that God wants.

Isaiah 55:10-11 (New International Version)

10 As the rain and the snow come down from heaven, and do not return to it without watering the earth and making it bud and flourish, so that it yields seed for the sower and bread for the eater,

11 so is my word that goes out from my mouth: It will not return to me empty, but will accomplish what I desire and achieve the purpose for which I sent it.

Lamentations 3:37-38 (New International Version)

37 Who can speak and have it happen if the Lord has not decreed it?

38 Is it not from the mouth of the Most High that both calamities and good things come?

Satan uses the same exact tactic against Jesus when he uses scripture to entice Jesus to sin against God during Jesus' trial in the desert. He was not authorised to use these scripture as he had no Holy Spirit in him. Those who practice Word of Faith outside the Will of God is committing the same sin as Satan even if its sincerely used with kindness or compassion.

Don't just believe everything that you hear a preacher preaches be careful you don't fall for a delusion or a lie. Truth is truth, its not innovation its revelation. Yet some of the charismatic teachings are very innovative because it came from the land which is very famous for innovation, but it's the fruit of human endeavour. They wanted to be like god to speak something into existence from their own mind. God can't give that kind of power to anyone unless they are totally obedient unto death or that they have the exact mind of God. Whenever you eat something unclean you can always excrete it out, but when some false doctrine or unclean theology gets into your brain, it will take you many few years to get it out of your mind. This is because every word spoken is a seed with their own Spirit. These are the unclean seeds sowed by the enemy of God to stumble the people of God to prevent them from entering into the promised land of milk and honey, the true abundance life in Jesus; the hidden Kingdom of God.
